My Name:

Reflecting on 2023

The past year has come and gone. A new year has arisen, and we are anxious to move forward with renewed vision, excitement, and hope for the months to come. Yet, before we take that step forward, let's take the time to reflect back upon the previous year. Although we should never dwell upon the past, we can certainly learn from it. Reflect on 2023 and ask yourself (with complete vulnerability & honesty) the following questions:

What was my overall attitude or feeling about this past year?

What were some of my best accomplishments or successes in 2023?

What were some of my biggest challenges or disappointments in 2023?

How could I have changed myself or circumstances in my environment to bring about a better outcome?

On a scale from 1 (not so great) to 5 (great), how do I feel that I did in each of the following areas?

FAMILY TIME	1	2	3	4	5
HOME DUTIES	1	2	3	4	5
PHYSICAL HEALTH	1	2	3	4	5
MENTAL/SPIRITUAL HEALTH	1	2	3	4	5
WORK DUTIES	1	2	3	4	5

Was I realistic in my expectations for last year? Did I give myself a reasonable amount of time to accomplish all that I wanted to accomplish? Did I give myself grace in difficult areas?

Did I learn anything new about myself in 2023? How could this knowledge help me have more realistic expectations for 2024?

Did I surround myself with others who encouraged, uplifted, and pushed me toward reaching my goals last year? If not, how/where can I find this kind of community as I start my journey into 2024?

Envisioning 2024

It's time to dive into envisioning all the possibilities of 2024 and set your new goals! As you think about these goals, remember this: you are only one person. Make goals that are realistic, which enable you to make lasting changes and not leave you ragged and weary. Goals should aim to enrich your life, not hinder your health. Let's get started! Choose one or two goals in some or all of the following categories:

FAMILY TIME Goals

HOME DUTIES Goals

PHYSICAL HEALTH Goals

MENTAL/SPIRITUAL HEALTH Goals

WORK DUTIES Goals

Now make a plan for each of your goals. Get really specific about how you want to implement your goals. For example, if you have a goal to exercise regularly, how will you go about doing that? Which days of the week can you realistically make this a habit? Which type of exercise would provide enough enjoyment for you to look forward to doing it regularly? Where will you exercise? Ask yourself specific questions like these that will make your goals come to life. And start small. If your goal is to exercise for 30 minutes 3 times a week, it would be good to start out with 10 or 15 minutes and gradually work up to your final goal. 10 minutes is much more enticing than 30 minutes! The more specific you are about how you want to implement your goals, the greater the chances of having the outcome you want. And most important of all—don't compare yourself to other people! You do you and be proud of what YOU can accomplish!

FAMILY TIME Plan

HOME DUTIES Plan

PHYSICAL HEALTH Plan

MENTAL/SPIRITUAL HEALTH Plan

WORK DUTIES Plan

Great job! The time you've spent reflecting and planning will guide you toward the changes you seek to bring about in your life! Now for the fun part: it's time to fill up your planner! Each week you will have the space to plan out meals for your family, prepare a shopping list, and keep a list of ongoing reminders. Each day provides separate sections for appointments and to dos. Simply write the specific times of your appointments in the white boxes marked with colons and write the purpose of your appointment on the lines provided. At the end of each month you will have the opportunity to reflect upon the yearly goals you have set for yourself. Take every effort to set aside a portion of time each month to delve through the questions; they will help assess how you are doing with each of your goals, as well as help you work through everyday challenges. Ready, set, go!

MONTHLY Reflection

As water reflects a face, so a man's heart reflects the man. Proverbs 27:19

What am I grateful for?

Each month try not to write the same things in this box. Take the time to think of things specifically related to what happened during the month, as well as recognize the progress you have made toward your goals.

How did I do in meeting my goals?

Be kind to yourself as you rate how you did in each category each month! As always, be realistic and remember that you are only one person!

FAMILY TIME	1	2	3	4	5
HOME DUTIES	1	2	3	4	5
PHYSICAL HEALTH	1	2	3	4	5
MENTAL/SPIRITUAL HEALTH	1	2	3	4	5
WORK DUTIES	1	2	3	4	5

What were my successes?

Try to find at least one way in which you were moving toward reaching a goal during the month—no matter how small it may be.

What were my challenges?

Acknowledge the things or people who may have made it difficult for you to move toward reaching a goal during the month.

How could I have approached my challenges differently? Did I give myself grace?

Thoroughly examine the challenges you face each month. Are these challenges within your control to change? Are they completely outside of your control? Could you have thought a different thought or used different words or actions to respond to those challenges? And did you give yourself grace for being a limited human being in a difficult world?

MONTHLY Plan

How can I change myself or my circumstances to tackle my current challenges?

Each month search deep into your heart and look around your environment to see if there are changes—even small ones—which can make a more positive impact on your life.

Which goal do I want to focus on next month? How can I prepare for success?

Remember to be realistic and start small. Don't try to be a superhuman all in the beginning. Draw your focus toward successfully working toward one (or two) goal each month. Take the time to get even more detailed about how you will implement your plan!
